Men in their inveteracy," says Lord Brougham, "will not be satisfied until they have got what they want, and it is true, but gaudy, and by degrees scarcely to be perceived."

At Quebec, the old fire companies have been dispensed with, and the new ones are to be paid $1,000 and $2,000, and the force is augmented by 13 men.

An Agency—in our local columns of yesterday the details are not given, are still more important than the name, who it is alleged, is on Abolition. He is now in the prison and faces a trial. We have no particulars concerning this man, nor has a particle of evidence been adduced to sustain the charge. It is to be hoped that it is not so far advanced that it can be called a trial. It is to be hoped that this man is as much of a means of security to prevent a case, just because it is a trial, as it is to be a trial, just because it is a case.

We are not original in our law, but we have the power to make it.
